

SUICIDE SUSPECTED.

F. Lewis Clark, Millionaire Yachtsman, Mysteriously Missing.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., January 17.—F. Lewis Clark, millionaire, of Spokane, Wash., and internationally known as a yachtsman, who disappeared last night, is believed by the police to have committed suicide by jumping from a pier here. Clark's hat was found tonight floating off shore a mile north of the city. He has not been seen since he escorted Mrs. Clark to a train last night.

Mr. Clark, native of Bangor, Me., and a graduate of Harvard, is one of the wealthiest men of the northwest. He is commodore of the Eastern Yacht Club, and a member of the Larchmont, Corinthian, Beverley and New York yacht clubs. Some years ago his boat won the sonder-class races at Kiel, Germany, from the boats of Emperor Willam. A son, Ted, now is a student at Harvard.

DENIED BY MR. CLARK AT 11 P.M.
