

Expect Confession May Clear Mystery

Marie Allen Kelly, who claims she is "Clarice the Blonde," known to police 15 years ago, has made a confession to Los Angeles authorities that is expected will clear the mysterious disappearance of Francis Lewis Clarke, Spokane, multi-millionaire, who dropped from sight 15 years ago at Santa Barbara, Cal. In her statement to police Mrs. Kelly declared that five of her friends followed Clarke to rob him when she had arranged to meet him at a Santa Barbara hotel. The mystery was an outstanding case of international interest at the time.

Clipped By:

liz_wood

Tue, Jan 16, 2018